

County Home Rule Charters In Chronological Order of Adoption - As of July 1, 2015

County	Adopted	Budget	Revenue	Structure	Ordinance Authority	Other
Walsh	1986	Standard language allowing for establishing mill levy limitations - not used.	¼ percent sales tax levied for emergency medical services.	Redesignated the Auditor's position as appointed - consideration being given for redesignation of other elected offices.	Yes, subject to citizen referral
Richland	1990	Standard language allowing for establishing mill levy limitations – citizen committee looked at this, but 2015 statutory changes met their needs.	By ordinance, may levy sales, income, MV taxes, subject to referral - have not done so.	Charter creates an appointed auditor and gives commission authority to create other offices as necessary - except that Sheriff & State's Attorney shall remain elected. Creates personnel system.	Yes, subject to citizen referral	Requires commission to create and maintain a 5-year capital program for the county
Cass	1994	Charter included a provision to permit a consolidated general fund of 75 mills.	½ percent sales tax levied for flood control. Sales tax previously levied for jail construction.	Charter allows commission, by ordinance, to redesignate (after 2002) the offices of auditor, treasurer, recorder, and clerk as appointed. Thus far the commission has not done so. Creates a personnel system.	Yes, subject to citizen referral
Stutsman	2000	By ordinance may establish levy limits, not to exceed a total of 103 mills.	By ordinance, may levy sales, income, MV taxes, subject to referral - have not done so.	Charter redesignates the offices of auditor, treasurer, and recorder as appointed, allows for the creation of a chief operation officer.	Yes, subject to citizen referral
Ward	2001	Charter includes authority to consolidate levies by ordinance – subject to citizen referral. Commissioners have not, as yet, used this authority.	½ percent sales tax levied for	Charter redesignates the positions of auditor/treasurer and recorder as appointed and gives commission authority to create other offices as necessary- except that Sheriff & State's Attorney shall remain elected. Creates personnel system.	Yes, subject to citizen referral
Steele	2005	Charter includes authority to increase levy limits by ordinance, but must be submitted for citizen vote. Have not, as yet, used this authority.	1 percent sales tax levied for road maintenance.	Charter designates the positions of clerk, recorder, & state's attorney as appointed. These previously made appointed through "tool chest" provisions.	Yes, subject to citizen referral
Williams	2006	Standard language allowing for establishing mill levy limitations - not used.	1 percent sales tax levied for public safety. Sales tax previously levied for jail construction.	Charter preserves current elected offices unless changed via 11-10.2 (Tool Chest) or by ordinance and voter approval	Yes, subject to citizen referral
Hettinger	2012	Standard language allowing for establishing mill levy limitations, but does not allow taxes in excess of statutory limits.	By ordinance, may levy sales, income, MV taxes, but must be submitted for citizen vote - have not done so.	Specifically states that currently elected offices shall remain elected.	Yes, subject to citizen referral
Burleigh	2014	No language addressing levies.	½ percent sales tax levied for jail construction.	Specifically states that currently elected offices shall remain elected.	No, ordinance authority not addressed
Morton	2014	Standard language allowing for establishing mill levy limitations - not used.	½ percent sales tax levied for jail construction.	Allows for redesignation and combination of elected offices, but only through citizen vote.	Yes, subject to citizen referral	