

ND Juvenile Justice Planning Work Group February 2022 Update

The services working group continues to discuss changes to strengthen the availability, information, and access to youth services in 211. Additionally, the group continues to identify priorities for areas of focus, including utilizing braided funding to increase access to services in more rural communities, diversifying the services available, and reducing wait times.